

Phonics and Early Reading in Foundation Stage and Year 1

This one day course focuses on the subject knowledge and pedagogy of systematic, synthetic phonics and early reading and exemplifies this with the Letters and Sounds programme.

This course:

- ensures subject knowledge is sufficient to meet the expectations of high quality, systematic, synthetic phonics teaching and learning
- covers the content, pace and progression of Letters and Sounds
- explores teaching strategies and assessment tools
- considers approaches to early reading acquisition
